

THE DAILY STAR

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

For the next 24 hours cloudy, and clearing, and followed by fair or clear and cooler weather.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

No word from Chas. E. Cist. "Edith, or Stricken Blind," at the Grand.

FRANK FRAYNE as "Si Slocum," at Wood's to-night.

SUPERINTENDENT ELLISON, of the Little Miami Railroad, is ill.

B. FENKEL, Esq.—check for $100—Springer Hall fund. Next.

PARKER HANCOCK, a twelve-year-old of 31 Laurel street, is missing.

MISS DEFOREST as "Lady Teazle," at the Grand Opera-house matinee, tomorrow.

DON'T tear down theatrical posters. Thomas Everett paid $5 and costs for that same.

HON. GEO. H. PENDLETON and family will winter in Florida. They left for the Sunny South this morning.

JOHN R. BREMER was among the "pulled" at the keeo ranch. It wasn't the Clerk of the Police Court, however.

TONY BACCIOCO, of 187 Sycamore, for an assault upon a poor old washer woman named Mrs. Dwyer, pays $25 and costs.

MARTIN REIS, a colored youth, charged by Mrs. Crist, also colored, with having stolen her husband's pants and shirts, was not convicted.

B. FISHER, a driver of a bakery wagon, was arrested yesterday for driving over a little daughter of Dr. Hannah's, at the corner of Plum and Court. He paid $10 and costs for careless driving.

The Nominating Committee of the Mercantile Library is as follows: Wm. McAlpin, Wm. Means, Geo. W. Jones, E. W. Stinson, W. S. Ridgeway, Frank H. Baldwin and Chas. B. Wilby.

JOHN and Fred. Pease and Abraham and Wm. Ficus and Wm. Warren, all Clermont county farmers, were among the parties arrested in the Sun saloon for gambling. They paid the costs and were released.

DOMS anybody know what has become of Coroner Maly? He has not been seen at his office since last Thursday. Maybe "Me Lord Patrick O'Maley" has determined not to hold "any more inquests, be gorrah."

JERRY MULROY, a boiler maker, made a bad investment. He picked up a dog belonging to Mr. E. W. Green, of 117 Sycamore street, and he pays $25 and costs—and loses the dog. Jerry thought it a dog-on-shame.

The following-named gentlemen have been appointed additional gaugers in this district, though they have not as yet received their commissions: Ephraim Morgan, S. B. Markland, C. C. Marshall, J. W. Baker and Henry Brockman.

The following named gentlemen have been selected by the Committee of Safety for the purpose of suggesting amendments to the Municipal Code: Rufus King, John F. Follett, Henry A. McCrell, Henry Mack and John Simpkinson.

BRIDGET MORRISSEY, a chambermaid at the Walnut-street House, found a pocket-book in one of the rooms she was arranging containing $11,000. She took it straightway to the clerk, and was generously rewarded for her honesty by the owner, Mr. Kessler, of Minneapolis.

MONSIEUR D. CONWAY, the renowned lecturer, sails for London early in March. He will be able to deliver but one more lecture in this city. His subject will be, "The United Republics," written specially for the occasion, and will be delivered at Pike's Hall, Feb. 10.

Mrs. ADOLPH LEUE delivered the last of her series of three lectures at College Hall last night to a good audience, who were deeply interested in her scientific remarks. Her subject, "Wanderings in the Organic and Inorganic World," was handled with that ability for which she is celebrated.

The monthly business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in their hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Reports of officers and minutes will be presented, and quite a large number of new members will be proposed for election. All friends of the cause are invited to attend.

The first and second entertainments, given by the Trustees and lady managers of the Colored Orphan Asylum, netted the sum of $1,079 80, for which the managers return their sincere thanks to the public, and announce that the next one will be held at Pike's Music Hall, Thursday evening, December 30.

CHAMBERS of Commerce receipts in the quarter ending November 30, $27,891 31; expenditures, $7,415 72; excess of receipts, $20,475 59; balance in Treasury September 1, $1,320 50; balance in Treasury December 1, $21,796 09. Reserve Fund—United States five-twenty bonds, $2,000; United States ten-forty bonds, $5,000—$7,000. Total cash and bonds, $14,796 09.

MR ROBERT SERVICE, a merchant of 505 West Fifth street, recently arrested at the instigation of a Mrs. McIntyre, of Freeman street, near York, who alleged that Service had, on the 29th of last month, in his own house, forced Hattie Foster, aged twelve years, to the floor and outraged her person, while Hattie was in his employ, was tried before Judge Ewert and honorably acquitted. The "Squire intimates" that the case had surface indications of an attempt at blackmail.

A CROWD of small boys amused themselves Sunday evening by running a hand-car up and down the track of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad near Linden-avenue crossing. On one of these trips a little fellow about six years of age, named George Kessel, whose parents live near Chester Park, either fell or was pushed under the car and badly crushed. Dr. Parkhurst, of the Twenty-fifth ward, was called in, but in spite of medical aid the child died about seven o'clock last evening. The coroner will hold an inquest this afternoon, that is if his Royal Highness feels so disposed.

Another Keno Raid. Last night the police made a dash on Reibel's saloon on Vine street, and captured a keno game, Richard Holland, as principal, and Jos. Forrest and J. H. Smith as witnesses of the game. Also, the Davis shop, at 73 West Fifth street, was attacked by a party headed by Capt. Hudson. The Captain, being refused admittance, kicked in the door and entered, and made prisoners Charlie and James Davis, and thirty-five "visitors," and took them to the Ninth-street Station-house, where the most of them were held.

The whole party made their appearance in the Police Court this morning, but their cases were continued to the 9th inst.

Attempted Suicide.

Josephine Watson, aged twenty-one, who has friends living at Dr. Everett's, 381 Elm street, made an attempt to drown herself at 6 o'clock, last evening, by jumping into the canal near the el. A policeman who, at the time the plunge was made, was standing quite near on Plum street, ran to the spot, jumped in and rescued her. She stated to the officer that she had lost her husband some three months since, and now feels that death would be a relief to her troubled mind. Dr. Everett states that she had been in a melancholy mood for several days, but that he never suspected her intentions of suicide. She was well cared for, and every effort will be made to banish her gloomy feelings.

Another Cutting Affray.

Last evening, between five and six o'clock, John Eckers, better known as "Dutchy," a former horse market hostler in this city, but recently returned from California, and quite recently employed by Isaac May, in company with a man named Wm. Raymond, employed around the stable, was on a drunk. On the corner of Sixth and Main streets, Dutchy knocked Eckers down, cutting a gash over his eye. After having his wound dressed he procured a knife and went forth on the war path in quest of his assailant. They met on Fifth street in front of Thompson's stable, and this time Dutchy was the victim, his lower lip being severed and his cheek laid open from the mouth to the ear by the knife in the hands of Raymond, after which he (Raymond) fled across the river. Dutchy was taken to his lodgings at No. 17 New street, where his wounds were attended to by Dr. Dawson, who states that he does not fear fatal consequences.

The Harmonic Society.

The Harmonic Society gave a very delightful musical entertainment at Melodeon last night to the associate members. The attendance was large and the lack of all formality made the occasion very pleasant one. The programme was as follows: Chorus—"And the Glory of the Lord," and "His Small Parity." Piano—"Andante," with variations from Schubert, by Sparrmann and Mr. Singer. Chorus of Trions, from "Prometheus." (Liszt). Song—"Ich Grolle Nicht," and "Es Ist Schon Spat" (Schumann). Mrs. G. W. Nichols (piano) and Dr. Fortschmeier (violin). Overture to "Coriolanus" (Beethoven). Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. F. P. Anderson, Miss Hollister and Dr. Longworth. Chorus from "The Messiah"—"His Yoke is Easy." Solo, from "Judas Macabbeus"—"The Lord Walketh." Mr. Cloner. Kreutzer Sonata—(Beethoven) Mr. Sidger (piano), and Dr. Fortschmeier (violin). Song—"Parade and the Ferry" (Schumann). Mrs. Hollister. The overture from "Coriolanus," as performed by Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. F. P. Anderson, Miss Hollister and Dr. Longworth, was one of the most enjoyable features of the evening. The solo from Handel, by Miss Emma Cranch, was a most beautiful addition to the programme.

Court Cullings.

Caroline Fay vs. J. Hoffman et al. Action under the Adair Liquor law. Question as to the sufficiency of a petition. The defendants demurred. Demurrer overruled. The State closed its testimony in the Egner case yesterday afternoon, with the examination of Dr. Wayne, who testified as to the chemical analysis of the blood spots on Egner's clothing when arrested. The defense began their case, examining a number of witnesses as to the character of the defendant for peace and quietness. Patrick Bergon vs. Henry Kimmie. Action for damages. Verdict for the defendant.

John K. Love vs. Louisa Smith et al. Action to recover a balance on note. In progress.

Frank Scherd vs. W. Holmes. Suit for alleged breach of contract. The will of Jacob Graf was probated yesterday.

The will of Wm. Schmidt was probated yesterday, and Michael Schmidt appointed executor. Personality, $25,000; realty, $10,000.

Chas. Hahn made an assignment to Paul Schuster yesterday.

E. Wassenich made an assignment to Thomas McLean, for the benefit of creditors.

Mary Allen vs. John Carrier et al. Question as to service upon a foreign corporation. Case came up on a motion to dismiss. Motion sustained.

Amusements.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—The attraction at this house last night was the debut of Miss Fannie Palmer, a pupil of Miss Fannie Morant, as "Edith." Miss Palmer is a lady some twenty-five or thirty years of age, rather handsome than otherwise, and judging by her attempt of last evening may, in time, make a fine actress. In some one or two instances last evening she showed considerable strength, though her voice, as is the case with most amateurs, was scarcely audible in some parts of the house. Fiske, as the showman, was, as he always is, excellent, and was ably supported by Dowling and Vance. "Edith" again this evening, and "The School for Scandal" to-morrow at the matinee, with Miss D. Forrest and Mr. Bradley in the leading roles.

WOOD'S THEATER.—"Si Slocum" drew a good audience, the gallery especially being well filled, at this house last night. The dog, horse and gun all performed their parts successfully, especially the dog, who was a great favorite with the audience. The play was beautifully mounted, both in an artistic and realistic manner. Mr. Frayne and his wife were both good, and did some truly wonderful shooting. Little Frankie was also good. But the "Nigger Jerry" (J. T. Craven) as far as acting goes, was the finest thing of the evening. "Si Slocum" every evening this week.

THE NATIONAL.—A splendid bill of varieties was given last evening, followed by the play of "Held at Bay," with Miss Placide in the leading role. The entertainment throughout was excellent. Mr. Ellis shined with special brilliancy as a Dutch song and dance artist. The same programme this evening.

A doctor went out West to practice his profession. An old friend met him on the street one day, and asked him how he was succeeding in his business. "First rate," he replied. "I've had one case," "Well, and what was that?" "It was a birth!" said the doctor. "How did you succeed with that?" "Well, the old woman died, and the child died, but I think I'll save the old man yet!" An African Prince once offered Du Chaillu his choice of a wife among 500 girls. To prevent jealousy he took them all. As he couldn't beget them all, he was obliged to camp out with them, and he says it surpassed any strawberry festival he ever attended.

PUT MONEY IN THY PURSE. It would seem that the greatest object in life was to accumulate riches, and is not confined to any one class, the poor are striving to be rich, and the rich still call for more. A rich man being asked how much wealth would satisfy him? replied, a little more. The time was that no one unless he possessed large means could enter Wall street to operate, but with the improvement of the age the mode of "stock privileges" has been inaugurated, by which men of limited means can invest $10 to $200, as every one dollar controls one share of stock, par value $10. There are not a few in the city who have some stock invested, so that an investment of $100 realizes a profit of $500 to $1,500. Messrs. BUCK-WALTER & Co., Bankers and Brokers, 10 Water street, secure such privileges, and will, upon application, mail their explanatory circular FREE, showing "how it is done."
